Introduction

The Hansen Little Public Humanities Grant for Students is a new scheme offered by the Melbourne Public Humanities Initiative (MPHI). MPHI has been established to ensure that the Humanities (broadly conceived) are available to all. It aims to create formal and informal educational opportunities that help diverse communities and organisations find inventive solutions for navigating our complex world.

This grant scheme is intended to support a wide range of public humanities projects that may include (but is not limited to) activities such as: exhibitions and public programs, oral history projects, archival projects, public art, cultural heritage or policy development, interpretation at public sites, television and radio productions, podcasts, videos, digital games, websites, mobile apps, and other digital media.

You will be asked to provide a project proposal, a bio statement, a budget outline for your project, a budget outline and supporting documentation outlining how you will utilise this scholarship.

You may also find these guidelines helpful, which also indicate the terms and conditions of Faculty of Arts Awards.
